

EXHIBITION SUMMARY TERMS

This document outlines the general terms for artists participating in exhibitions at A Space Gallery.

The gallery offers professional curatorial and organizational support depending on the selected package.

Artists are required to follow the installation timeline set by the gallery.

The gallery space cannot be altered without prior written consent.

Subletting the gallery space or hosting any unapproved events or commercial activity is strictly prohibited.

The gallery is not responsible for artworks or materials left after the exhibition.

Storage of works after the exhibition may be subject to an additional fee.

Artists are responsible for the transportation, insurance, and removal of their artworks.

Any damage to the gallery must be covered by the artist.

A non-refundable application fee is required for each submission.

Participation fees vary depending on the type and duration of the exhibition.

Additional services such as vernissage support, curatorial texts, or promotion may be subject to separate fees.

For questions or customized exhibition support, contact: aspacegallery@gmail.com